The Department of Culture and the Arts is pleased to invite you to the launch of Creating Value, an Arts and Culture Sector Policy Framework 2010-2015.

The policy framework articulates the Department's principles, outcome areas, priorities and strategies to guide our activities for the coming 5 years and the basis on which we will measure our success.

The launch is an opportunity to learn more about our approach to supporting culture and the arts in Western Australia. The policy framework introduces the concept of public value as an outcome of the work of the sector and of the Department.

We will be providing further opportunities to engage with us in discussions on how this framework can support your own planning and activities in the coming year.
