

The National Trust of Australia (WA) invites teachers to

History, Heritage and High Tea

Professional Learning focusing on The Australian Colonies -

Swan River Colony 1827 - 1899

links to Australian Curriculum: History

Target Audience: Primary teachers.

We're gearing up for the new Australian History Curriculum! This Professional Learning includes a workshop and tours at two National Trust properties as well as afternoon tea at the 'Peninsula Tea Rooms'. You'll come away armed with information and an awareness of resources to teach historic skills, knowledge and understandings.

Consolidate your knowledge about this exciting period of WA history and find out about school excursions to East Perth Cemeteries and Peninsula Farm designed to help children appreciate WA's unique heritage.

A GREAT WAY TO PREPARE FOR WA WEEK!

WHERE: Meet at East Perth Cemeteries, Bronte St then Peninsula Farm (Tranby) Johnson Rd, Maylands

(will need own transport)

WHEN: Saturday 31st March 2012

TIME: 1:30pm - 4:30pm

(including afternoon tea at Peninsula Tea Rooms)

COST: $15 (for afternoon tea)

RSVP: phone 9321 6088 (office hours)

or email trust@ntwa.com.au

by Friday 23rd March 2012

Bookings essential

NATIONAL TRUST

PROPOSED TIMETABLE

History, Heritage and High Tea

Saturday 31st March 2012

TIME	ACTIVITY
1:30pm - 1:45pm	Meet at East Perth Cemeteries Registration Welcome by NTWA Education Staff
1:45pm - 2:15pm	Introduction Valuing heritage with the Australian Curriculum - History
2:15pm - 2:45pm	Exploration of East Perth Cemeteries
2:45pm - 3:00pm	Drive to Peninsula Farm (Tranby)
3:00pm - 3:30pm	Meet at Peninsula Tea Rooms for afternoon tea
3:30pm - 4:00pm	Guided tour through house by NTWA Education Officers
4:00pm - 4:15pm	Excursions at Peninsula Farm (Tranby) Focus: Swan River Colony or Time, Continuity and Change Valuing our heritage across the curriculum
4:15pm - 4:30pm	Questions Booking information, membership etc Other heritage sites for excursions Resources
4:30pm	Home